Title of the presentation: FUNCTIONALIZATION OF GRAPHENE OXIDE WITH BENZO[b]THIOPHENE DERIVATIVES SYNTHESIZED BASED ON C-H ACTIVATION

Type of the presentation: (oral/poster)

Co-authors: Ulviyya Hasanova ,Mustafa Muradov

Other details of the presentation: specify here any additional details related to the contribution (e.g. title of the session / track of the conference programme in which the contribution is accepted): Present at the first day of conference, Chair: Stefano Bellucci , Session one: biomedicine and optoelectronics

Outcome of the conference participation

Description of the outcome of the presentation of the accepted contribution, in terms of grantee's visibility, including the establishment of new contacts for future collaborations

(max.500 word)

The presentation at the conference provided a platform to showcase my research to a wider audience of peers, researchers and industry professionals. This may lead to greater recognition and recognition of my expertise and contributions to the field. The conference featured presentations on very high-profile, current issues. High-profile presentations can attract media coverage, both in academic circles and in wider industry publications. As a result of this exposure, the work presented by me can also enhance the reputation and highlight the importance of my research. Successfully presenting at prominent conferences such as this one adds a prestigious credential to my professional profile, boosts my CV and supports my future grant applications or job opportunities. Conferences are also prime places for networking. I met and interacted with other researchers, academics and professionals to facilitate the exchange of ideas and identify potential areas of mutual interest. Besides, the post-presentation discussion created conditions for special cooperation and planning of next meetings. On the other hand, I hope that the collaborations created here will lead to the development of joint publications that can increase the quality and impact of my research results.

At the end of the presentation, while thanking me for supporting me by funding my participation and informing about the CA21126 project, the young researchers asked questions about this grant and were interested in joining and participating in these projects. It allowed me to meet different researchers and made new friends and connections.

In addition, in order to develop my career, reach a wider audience of research and inform more young researchers about COST ACTİONS and the grant, a news was published on the official website of Baku State University.
